

International Outcome Inventory for Alternative Interventions

Instructions: Answer the Questions and Circle your Answer

1. Think about how much you used the listening/communication strategies over the past two weeks. On an average day, how many hours did you use them?

None

Less than 1 hours per day

1 – 4 hours per day

4-8 hours per day

More than 8 hours per day

2. Think about a situation where you most wanted to hear better, before you attended the Group AR program. Over the past two weeks, how much has the Group AR program helped in that situation?

Helped not at all

Helped slightly

Helped moderately

Helped quite a lot

Helped very much

3. Think again about the situation where you most wanted to hear better. When you use the strategies that you learned during the Group AR program, how much difficulty do you STILL have in that situation?

Very much difficulty

Quite a lot of difficulty

Moderate difficulty

Slight difficulty

No difficulty

International Outcome Inventory for Alternative Interventions

4. Considering everything, do you think attending the Group AR program was worth the trouble?

Not at all worth it
Slightly worth it
Moderately worth it
Quite a lot worth it
Very much worth it

5. Over the past two weeks, applying what you learned during the Group AR program, how much have your hearing difficulties affected the things that you do?

Affected very much
Affected quite a lot
Affected moderately
Affected slightly
Affected not at all

6. Over the past two weeks, applying what you learned during the Group AR program, how much were other people bothered by your hearing difficulties?

Bothered very much
Bothered quite a lot
Bothered moderately
Bothered slightly
Bothered not at all

7. Considering everything, how much has the Group AR program changed your enjoyment of life?

Worse
No change
Slightly better
Quite a lot better
Very much better