Example Mind Map of Person-Centered Care

In Mindset Change your team members will each write down on sticky notes their ideas of what person-centered care is. The mind map is a way to visually organize these ideas, find common themes, and ultimately come to a shared understanding of the topic.

idainstitute